21	On April 15, 2013, the parties in this case appeared before the Court for an initial
22	appearance on a Complaint. On that date, the government moved for detention, and a detention
23	hearing was scheduled for April 19, 2013. The parties now submit this Stipulation and Proposed
24	Order Extending the Time Limits of Rule 5.1(c) and Excluding Time until May 20, 2013.
25	Pursuant to Rule 5.1(d), the defendant consents to this extension of time and waiver, and
26	the parties represent that good cause exists for the extension, including the effective preparation
27	of counsel. The requested continuance is needed to allow counsel sufficient time to prepare and
28	review discovery that the government has provided, and the failure to grant the continuance

15	For the reasons stated above, the Court finds that the extension of time limits applicable
16	under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1(c) from April 19, 2013 through May 20, 2013 is
17	warranted and that a continuance of the defendant's arraignment / preliminary hearing to May 20,
18	2013 is warranted; that exclusion of this period from the time limits applicable under 18 U.S.C. §
19	3161 is warranted; that the ends of justice served by the continuance under Rule 5.1 outweigh the
20	interests of the public and the defendant in the prompt disposition of this criminal case; and that
21	the failure to grant the requested exclusion of time would deny counsel for the defendant and for
